THE BROWN CASE SET FOR FRIDAY

The petition of Henry C. Brown, former principal of Waiwae School, for a writ of mandamus against the Department of Education, came up in Judge Dickey's court last Friday. Attorney Fred Patterson, of Lihue, appeared for the petitioner.

When the case was called a letter from Deputy Attorney-General Smith was read in which he stated that he was not personally acquainted with the matter and that both the Attorney-General and Deputy Heen were away. Under the circumstances he asked that hearing go over for one week. This request was granted, and the petition will come on for hearing next Friday.

Mr. Brown was not reappointed as principal of Waiwae school at the beginning of the new school year. He now wishes to know why he should not be so appointed or be given some other school of equal grade.

Later—A letter arrived from Attorney-General Stahleck this morning stating that neither he nor any of his deputies could come over here on Friday, and requesting that the Brown case be postponed. He did not state what period the postponement should be, however, so it has left court, lawyers and clients considerably in the air.

Plantation Man Dead

News arrived Saturday that H. W. Thomas, a man connected with several island plantations, had died in Piedmont, Cal., the previous day. Mr. Thomas was secretary of Kilauea plantation, on this island, also of Pauhau and Hutchinson, on Hawaii.

BRIDGE PARTY FOR MRS. L'ORANGE

Mrs. Guy Rankin, [Makaweli], gave a very enjoyable bridge party in honor of her mother, Mrs. L'Orange. After several spirited games the first prize was awarded to Mrs. Frank Alexander, of Elele; the second to Mrs. Wm. Danford, of Manua; while Mrs. H. H. Brodie, of Hanapepe, claimed the "booby." Refreshments were served during the afternoon.

Mrs. Rankin was assisted by her sister, Miss Maud L'Orange. Those to meet Mrs. L'Orange were Mrs. Chas. Rice and Mrs. E. L. Putman, of Lihue; Mrs. E. A. Alexander, Mrs. J. H. Bole, Mrs. H. H. Brodie, Mrs. B. D. Baldwin, Mrs. C. B. Hofgaard, Mesdames Onsted, Hodge, Lyman, Struve, Bauham and Danford.

The Corelli Trio

The Corelli Brothers, a trio of Italian musicians—two violins and a harp, and who are touring the world under the direction of Walter Morris, are meeting with tremendous success in Honolulu, where their playing is compared to the Chernysky Brothers. Mr. Morris is trying to arrange a series of concerts in Kauai and if inducements are sufficient he will bring the trio over here. Theatergoers have a musical treat in store for them.

Sergeant Fred J. Sherry, of Schofield Barracks, medical department, has been detailed to relieve Sergeant A. C. Cockett on Kauai. The latter will go to department headquarters.

FAIR AND CONCERT VERY SUCCESSFUL

The fair given by the ladies Saturday afternoon at Lihue Social hall for the benefit of the Samuel Mahelona Memorial hospital was a success in every way. It was patronized by people from every part of the island and was replete in features that everyone enjoyed. Something like $1350 were realized, which will go a long way toward assisting the worthy object in view.

The concert in the evening was before a packed house. There was not only not a vacant seat in the hall but many stood outside. The program was excellent, all of the numbers being enjoyed.

The hospital above Kapa'a is nearly completed and will very shortly be ready to receive patients. It is presumed that most of the sufferers from tuberculosis on the island will enter it.

The following facts are submitted by one of the prominent Hawaiians identified with the affair:

About two months ago, the idea was conceived to raise a fund among the Hawaiians to contribute to the Samuel Mahelona Memorial Hospital. A committee consisting of Mrs. W. N. Stewart, Mrs. H. T. Sheldon, Mrs. Wendenoyer and Misses Molly Cummings, Hannah and Daisy Sheldon, after a hurried canvass among friends, decided upon giving a Fair and Concert on the 10th inst. A call was made on the Hawaiians to "kokua," and they, appreciating the generous donations made by Hon. and Mrs. A. S. Wilcox, which made such an institution possible, and the great good that such an institution would do to the community, contributed unstintingly of their time, labor and money toward making the affair a success. The spirit of the idea, however, was not confined to the Hawaiians alone. Many others, representing different nationalities, appreciating the need of such an institution in Kauai, fell in line and helped the good cause generously.

On Saturday afternoon, the Fair was opened at 2 o'clock. Among the articles for sale were beautiful and unique cards, styled, "Mahelona Filling," a recipe used in the making of delicious cake, the idea of Mrs. E. S. Swan.

The Fair and Concert netted $1334.15. That such a large amount was netted was due to the willingness of friends to bear the expense. Not a cent was taken out for expenses. The rent of the hall was paid by the members of the Christian Endeavor societies of the Lihue Hawaiian church and the music furnished for the dance after the concert was the contribution of the Peter Mallina Club.

The receipts, itemized, were as follows:

Tickets, admission and donation	$ 372.50
Lois	30.25
Lauhala Mats	239.20
Fancy work	585.35
Candy	65.25
"Mahelona Filling" (Card)	26.00
Gate receipts	31.45

Total $1334.00

The committee wish to thank each and every one who helped to make the affair such a great success.

Koloa Gamblers

Ten Japanese were arrested at Kakaia Saturday night on the charge of gambling. They were released on bail but failed to show up yesterday for trial and the entire amount of $80 was declared forfeited.

BLIND PIGGERS HEAVILY FINED

The publicity given to the fact of the existence of a so-called "blind pig" in Koloa resulted in police activity and the arrest of two persons on the charge of selling liquor without license. Also, the room against which much complaint had been levelled, was one, and Mrs. Shingawa the other.

In the court both pleaded guilty. In order to avoid trial, Abe was fined $150 and costs and was warned by the court not to offend again. The woman was fined $100 and costs.

There has been a great deal of complaint about illicit liquor selling in Koloa, and it is thought that these heavy fines will have the effect of checking the business.

LEGISLATORS OFF FOR THE CAPITAL

The Kauai members of the Legislature are leaving for Honolulu and expect to have a number of conferences before the session opens a week from tomorrow. Most of them went down on Saturday. Senator Coney will leave by tonight's steamer, and Representative Chas. Wilcox, the last to sail, will get away on Saturday. Mrs. Wilcox is already in the city.

The line-up from Kauai at this session will be J. H. Coney and M. A. Mikakele in the Senate, and J. K. Loti, J. K. Kula, Chas. Wilcox and John de Cembra, in the House.

A report came from Honolulu this morning that the Kauai members of the Legislature will make an effort to get an endorsement of a policy of opening up public lands on Kauai this year in place of next year.

Inspection of Guard

Major R. E. Longan, of the 32nd, U. S. Infantry, who has been detailed by the Inspector-General's department to inspect the National Guard regiments and detachments on Oahu and on Kauai, arrived at Lihue last Wednesday morning and has since been looking over the companies of this island. He will probably return to Honolulu Saturday night, although this will depend upon whether or not he can finish up his work here. Major Longan is a native of Missouri and is practically a life-long soldier. He has seen duty in China, the Philippines and other places.

The Lost, Found

Paul Kahlbaum, T. Blackstad, S. C. Lee and two native boys, all of Waiwae, went out in a sampan Saturday afternoon to fish at Milohi. Not returning Sunday, there was considerable alarm, and yesterday another sampan was sent out to look for them. They were found at Pihale. The explanation was made that the magnets on the sampan failed to work.

Accident Board Meeting

The meeting of the Kauai Accident Board, set for next Wednesday evening, has been postponed to Friday evening in order that the advice of Attorney-General Stahleck in two important matters may be obtained. The Attorney-General will arrive in Lihue Friday morning.

KAUAI SCENERY PLEASES PAINTER

The Star-Bulletin of yesterday had the following:

E. W. Christmas, R. B. A., one of the many talented painters drawn here by the charm of Hawaii's scenery, and one who has spent virtually all of many months out in the open with the scenes he loves, is back from Kauai eloquently enthusiastic over the Garden Islands' opportunities for the painter.

Twenty watercolors, some of which will be worked up into oils, prove the truth of his words when he declares that the painter on Kauai forgets time and fatigue so absorbed does he become in transferring to canvas the glories around him on every side.

The great Waiwae canyon, with its ruddy colors and bold configurations, and the marvellously beautiful Hanalei bay and environment are, says Mr. Christmas, two of the finest gems in Hawaiian scenery. Often he painted from dawn to dusk leaving his boarding place early, with a few biscuits in his pocket, and staying in the open all day.

Mr. Christmas will give an exhibition of his paintings just after the Carnival, time and place to be announced later. This exhibition will be one of the artistic events of the season, as his fine work is already recognized throughout the islands.
